

CHATTANOOGA SYMPHONY & OPERA

THE UNIVERSITY of TENNESSEE
CHATTANOOGA

Leading from the Podium: The Art of Conducting in the Classroom

Geared toward middle and high school conductors, the Chattanooga Symphony & Opera will offer a unique workshop and provide a limited number of participants conducting opportunities with the Chattanooga Symphony & Opera. This intensive program on February 9 & 10, 2018 will include coaching and pertinent profession related presentations of score study, rehearsal techniques, developing student leadership and more with CSO Music Director Kayoko Dan and University of Tennessee at Chattanooga Director of Bands Craig Davis. Up to nine active participants will be accepted.

Please return all materials by January 2, 2018 to:
Chattanooga Symphony & Opera
ATTN: Conductor's Workshop
701 Broad Street
Chattanooga, TN 37402

Contact:
Staci Spring
Community Engagement & Education Manager
sspring@chattanoogasympphony.org
423.267.8583 x 2100

Contact Information

Name:

School:

Email:

Phone:

Degree(s):

How long have you been teaching?

Supporting Materials

Please write a short paragraph in response to each of the following questions and attach to application.

1. What led you to teaching music? How do you work to inspire your students?
2. Describe your ensemble and/or program. Please include ages/grades of students, level of experience, frequency and duration of rehearsals, number and format of annual performances, and challenges associated with your program.
3. In which aspects of directing an ensemble are you most confident? What areas are you least confident?

Additional Information

- If chosen to participate, a fee of $120.00 will be due by cash, check, or credit. Auditors will be welcome to attend at a cost of $50.
- Sessions will take place on Friday evening, February 9 and Saturday, February 10 at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.